Disturbance Among the Tenantry in Tipperary, Ireland—Police Resisted--Fete Day in France—The French Loan—Disturbance in Turkey.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, August 15.—Dispatches have just been received from Ireland giving particulars of deeds of lawlessness which occurred yesterday near Tipperary. It seems that while a great landlord of that region named Scully was serving the usual notices on his various tenants he was shot and killed by some unknown person. A strong body of police soon after made their appearance on the scene, and attempted to arrest the culprit. The police in turn were attacked, and two of them shot dead and four mortally wounded. Several arrests were subsequently made. At last advices quiet had been restored.

LONDON, August 15.—Evening.—Further advices from Tipperary, Ireland, received this evening, state the agent of the landlord, Mr. Scully, was not killed, as at first reported. He endeavored on Tuesday to serve some ejectment notices on several tenants in the vicinity of Tipperary, when he was accosted by a large body of them, including many women, and was obliged to fly into the city to save his life. Yesterday he started on the same errand, accompanied by a large body of armed police. On reaching the hamlets of the tenantry his efforts to serve notices were met with derision and threats of violence. The police endeavored to disperse the mob, when a fierce fight ensued, during which the police fired on the rioters several times, shots being returned by some of the crowd. Several of the mob were wounded, as were a number of police. Scully was seriously wounded, and the police retired unable to make any arrests at the time. Tipperary is in a high state of excitement, and further trouble is apprehended.

TURKEY.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—Dispatches received to-day from Constantinople state that a serious encounter took place at Pera, two miles from the city, between the Greek residents and Turks in consequence of the violation of the grave of Prince Mirditer. The troops of the Sultan were called out to suppress the riot and fired upon the Greeks, killing and wounding a large number. Many of the latter fled to the residences of the foreign Consulates for refuge. The trouble was finally suppressed by the active measures of the soldiery.

A large lot of old subsistence stores and war material accumulated here will be sold by the Government in a few days.

Act Regulating Public Education—A Conciliation Meeting.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW ORLEANS, August 15.—An act regulating public education in Louisiana has been made the special order in the Legislature for Friday. Section 1st provides that schools shall be open to all children between the ages of six and twenty-one, without distinction as to race or color or previous condition. The bill provides for a Board of Education, to consist of the Lieutenant Governor and six persons appointed by the Governor, to be confirmed by the Senate. The State Superintendent alone is to be elected by the Directors of the six general school districts into which the State is to be divided, to be appointed by the Superintendent. The Superintendent is empowered to decide without appeal all controversy or disputes arising under this law. It also invests him with other extraordinary powers. It requires all teachers to inculcate loyalty to the National Government and kindness to all men regardless of race or color.

Section 5 of chapter 6 provides for compulsory attendance of all children between eight and fourteen, without fixed employment, in such school as may be provided by the board of education at the expense of the parents or guardians, or in case of poverty, at the expense of the school fund, at the discretion of the board. The act provides that in addition to poll tax, a special tax of one-fourth of one per cent. be levied on all taxable property in the State. Section 2d of concluding chapter gives the State Superintendent the right to interpret all doubtful provisions of this law.

An informal meeting was held last night in the Governor's office between prominent members of both parties. All conceded that the danger of collision was imminent. The Democratic gentlemen expressed the opinion that the best and only way to secure peace was to stop the system of aggressive and oppressive legislation now in progress; that the Democratic and Conservative elements of the country expected to accomplish nothing except in a legal and constitutional way but that it was unwise and improper for the State government to defy the wishes of the people; that if the Governor would throw himself upon the people they would sustain him, and no resort to force would be necessary for the preservation of peace.

Governor Warmoth stated he was authorized to say in behalf of the Republicans that there was nothing in reason that the Republicans can do or concede that will not be done to promote harmony. He promised that measures of party policy obnoxious to citizens shall be modified, and said they were earnest in their desire to secure the welfare of the people and to secure peace and order.

Another meeting will be held in a few days, when it is believed some practical illustration of the mutual desire for harmony will be presented.

ARMS FOR SOUTHERN STATES.

A special Washington dispatch states that soon after the adjournment of Congress requisitions were received at the War Department from the Governors of several of the reconstructed States for arms to equip the State Militia, it seeming to be understood that the Secretary of War could fill requisitions under the provisions of the act of 1776. Washington Topics and Gossip.

Mr. Evarts is now preparing an opinion relative to the right of the President to appoint Collectors for New Orleans and Alaska. It is believed that Evarts will decide that the offices can and should be filled during the recess of the Senate by the President.

It is expected that an open rupture will concur between Mr. Johnson and Mr. Evarts, as it is known that the President does not agree with the Attorney General upon many points. He especially dislikes the opinion in the Rollins case.

General Blair telegraphs from Fort Sanders that he cannot come East for some weeks.

General Kautz is ordered to accompany General Rosecrans to Mexico, as Military and Diplomatic Agent. He will do what General Sherman was sent to accomplish two years ago.

Commissioner Rollins will return on Monday.

Minister Rosecrans will not sail for Mexico before October, as he does not wish to land at Vera Cruz during the yellow fever season. It is generally understood that General Rosecrans will represent an entire new line of policy with reference to Mexican affairs, and that every effort will now be directed by our government toward securing a controlling influence in that country. It is known that Mr. Seward and the President have always disagreed about Mexican questions, but the influence of the former has hitherto prevailed. Mr. Rosecrans will now be the exponent of a more active policy, and his selection and instructions are the result of the ascendancy of the military ideas about adjacent countries which are represented in the Cabinet by Gen. Schofield.

BUFFALO.

The Chinese Embassy—One of Their Number Narrowly Escapes Drowning.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BUFFALO, August 16.—The Chinese Embassy paid an informal visit to this city, yesterday. They were met at the Niagara Falls depot by the Mayor and President of the Board of Trade, who took charge of them and escorted them in carriages to view the grain elevator, foundries, &c., of the city. They were also sumptuously entertained at private residences of leading citizens, the Buffalo Club House, &c. In the afternoon, one of the fastest steamers on the Erie Railroad line having been placed at their disposal, they were taken out on the lake for an excursion, escorted by another steamer. When opposite Fort Porter the boats were stopped and the Embassy was honored with an international salute from the fort. There not being sufficient time to return to the city to take the train for Niagara Falls, the steamer Wabash steamed down to Tonawanda to intercept the train. Here an unfortunate accident occurred to San Tajea, Assistant Ambassador. While crossing a ricketty old wharf he was precipitated by a loose plank through the wharf into deep water. He seized the plank and kept himself afloat until a deck hand of the steamer Wabash swam to his assistance. A rope was passed under his arms by which he was raised to the wharf.

Its apparent motion is now west and north thirty-four seconds of time in right ascension and four minutes of arc in declination.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NASHVILLE, August 16.—Last night about twelve o'clock a party of masked horsemen, about fifteen in number, rode into Franklin, Williamson county, and broke open the door of the store of a Prussian named Bierfield, a radical. Bierfield, soon as he saw the masks attempted to escape by flight. He was fired upon and fell dead, pierced by five bullets. Lawrence Bowman, colored, Bierfield's clerk, was also shot. He ran off but was found during the night in a lot where he had taken refuge, mortally wounded. He died this morning. Bierfield's body has been brought here for burial. Who the maskers were, or whether they were supported by any one, is not known. The affair occurred just after the close of a circus exhibition and many people were in the streets, some of whom interfered but could not prevent the assassination. It has created intense feeling in Franklin, and is denounced by all classes.

Consecration of Bishop Becker.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BALTIMORE, August 16.—The consecration of Rev. Thomas A. Becker, as Roman Catholic Bishop of the new See of Wilmington, and Rev. James Gibbons as Vicar of Apostolic of North Carolina, took place at the Cathedral to-day. The ceremonies were most impressing and solemn. The Cathedral was densely crowded and thousands were unable to gain admittance. The Most Rev. Martin John Spaulding, Arch Bishop of Baltimore, and Primate of the United States, acted as consecrator, and the Very Rev. H. B. Caskery assisted.

Frank Blair's Strategy.

Our contemporaries of the Republican faith are being considerably exercised over the brutally stupid letter of Gen. Frank Blair, which procured him the nomination at the hands of his Southern admirers. Such indignation is a great waste of a good material. Frank is harmless. The really dangerous man is the one leading the ticket. Frank means war fast enough, but lacks the capacity to understand it, and so enforce his meaning.

A gallant officer, and one—more shame to him—of Frank's own faction, told us, not long since, an anecdote illustrative of this bit of Blair's practical capacity. In one of Gen. Sherman's great moves, Gen. Blair commanded a division in the advance that had our narrator, with his brigade, as a part of the force. One morning the column came to a halt. The men fell out, and hour after hour went by in idleness. At last our friend rode to the front, and found Gen. Blair reconnoitering the passage of a river that had a house on the opposite bank, and people moving about in a very suspicious manner. Gen. Frank had fixed his headquarters for the time under some shady trees and through field glasses, and glasses of cock tail, was trying to comprehend the situation. In this he was being efficiently aided by his staff. Gen. Frank had selected his staff with great care. One was supposed to have been a comic opera singer, from the way he could appear, in his linen only, and convulse headquarters with a funny song. Another was thought to be a professional bar-tender—he could select liquors and mix drinks with such efficiency. Another was, evidently, an inspector of the ballet, for he could tell a pretty girl at any distance. Napoleon, in the creation of his marshals, never displayed a keener knowledge of the fitting agent than Gen. Frank Blair in the selection of his slaves. Between the drinks and curses, songs and laughter, the precious hours went by.

At last an orderly volunteered to ride his horse over, and reconnoitre in person. Gen. Frank consented, and ordered the man to strip naked before plunging in. The orderly did as directed, and about plunging into the river, when Gen. Sherman dashed by.

"What is the meaning of this?" he demanded.

General Frank explained. "Tut, tut," responded Sherman, in his quick, nervous way. "That is all very well for this brave fellow, but it isn't war. Here, fetch me a piece of artillery. Now, my good fellow," he continued to the Lieutenant in command of the gun, "see how near you can send a shell to the roof of the house without hitting it."

The order was obeyed, and in five minutes a white flag was run up, and a boat came over to say that the house was a hospital, with a few sick and wounded Confederates left in it.

After that any suggestion from General Frank Blair was met by his officers with the cry, "Tut, tut, General, that is all very well, but it isn't war."

What was true of the blather-skite then is applicable now. His letter is atrocious enough, but it does not mean war.—Cincinnati Chronicle.

It having been denied that the late Gen. Charles G. Halpine wrote the famous poem commencing, "Tear down the flaunting lie," Mr. Dana, of the New York Sun—then one of the editors of the Tribune—says: "The poem in question was written by General Halpine, who brought it to the Tribune office himself, and delivered it to Mr. Greeley in person. The idea that George Boweryem had any connection with it, of that there was any dramatic scene about it, is purely imaginary. Besides, General Halpine never concealed the fact that he was the author of the piece; which, in his later years, he used to speak of as one of his youthful indiscretions."

"JOSH BILLINGS" is about publishing a collection of letters from Henry Clay to his father, Henry Shaw, of Lanesboro, who was Mr. Clay's chief political manager in New England.

POLITICAL ITEMS.

AN old Confederate cavalry regiment in Louisiana has re-organized as a Seymour and Blair Club.

THE men who cursed our dying heroes at Andersonville are now shouting for Seymour and Blair.

THE hands which cut down the boys in blue on the battle-field, will all deposit Democratic ballots next November.

IN 1860, the Southern fire-eaters threatened rebellion if they failed. They now threaten revolution if they succeed.

THOSE who filled the nation with widows and orphans, now seek to rule the Republic by electing Seymour to the Presidency.

THE emaciated survivors of the Libby and Andersonville prisons are asked by the Democrats to vote with the wretches who scoured and starved them.

EVERY BOY in blue, who was maimed, slaughtered or starved during the war, was maimed, slaughtered or starved by those who support Seymour and Blair.

EVERY Union soldier's grave is an eloquent speech against the Democratic ticket, which was nominated by the men who initiated and carried on the war in which our boys in blue were slaughtered.

THERE has been such a scattering of ruffians from Southern Indiana, since Judge Lynch was instilled at Seymour, that the Seymour party almost despair of getting the men back to vote in October and November.

ONE of General Hancock's principal staff officers, when asked, after the Democratic National Convention, how he liked the ticket, responded: "What uniform do you suppose I wear? Do you think I have begun to wear gray?"

WE should have liked to have seen the brother, who seems to have been a pillar in the Church, enter singing:

> And are we Rebels yet alive,
> And do we still rebel,
> And is it not amazing grace
> That we are not in hell?

THE Rochester Express says: We have had a suspicion that Blair knows the effect of his letters, and it would be in strict harmony with the impudence of the Blairs to have him asking a Cabinet appointment or a foreign mission from President Grant for services in promoting his election.

MR. GEO. M. WESTON, who was the Democratic candidate for Congress, in Maine, against Mr. Peters in 1866, has published a letter against the revolutionary doctrines of General Blair and the Democratic platform. He declares that the Reconstruction laws, however objectionable, are an accomplished fact, and deprecates any endeavor to renew disturbances as dangerous to the existence of the nation.

THE Reading (Pa.) Dispatch says the Democrats in Berks county won't rally for Seymour. On several occasions, and in different parts of old Berks, they have tried to form clubs for the campaign, but in every case the attempt has proven futile. The sturdy farmers who have their thousands invested in Government securities will not go the repudiation ticket. When the Gibaralter of Democracy in Pennsylvania won't rally, it is apparent Seymour will have a poorer showing in November than McClellan had in 1864.

MAJOR CARTER, Republican candidate for Congress in the VIIth District of Indiana, was speaking to the people of Clay county, when a Democrat asked him to defend the unequal bearing of the income tax on farmers, laborers and others. He answered by a statement showing that but a single farmer in the county paid income tax; but that, being under Democratic rule, the county taxes were from 50 to 100 per cent. heavier than they are in the Republican counties. The same thing is said to be true in every part of Indiana; the Democratic counties all pay the heaviest local taxes. It is true, also, of the principal counties of New York and Pennsylvania.

THE measure of the Democratic patriotism was never more correctly stated than by Capt. Isaiah Rynders, the great Democratic Tammany bully, in a speech made by him last week. He said: "He loved the American flag as dearly, he declared, as any other man, so long as it represented a government, in the hands of the Democratic party, and no longer." That is, when the Democratic party is beaten at the polls, then Rynders and his party are for tearing down the stars and stripes. That is precisely as the rebels felt and acted in 1861. They tore down the American flag because the Democratic candidate was not elected President. Rynders and his party, led by Seymour and Blair, now threaten to do the same thing again.

A CURIOUS REPORT.—The "Veteran Observer" writes from Cincinnati to the Times a curious report that Mr. Seymour, "convinced of the hopelessness of his election, and anxious to carry out his original pledge to Chase (a pledge which Vallandigham says would, in one hour more, have been fulfilled by Chase's nomination,) has been corresponding with the delegates to the Convention to get them to release him and nominate Chase in his stead." He adds, on the authority of the Cincinnati Gazette, that "this was only prevented by the Ohio delegation, whose personal fortunes, at least that of some of them, depended on the issue. I have intimations from other quarters that such a negotiation has taken place, and I know that some of the conservatives expected it to succeed."

A CORRESPONDENT of the Detroit Tribune, an old resident of Detroit, who has voted constantly in the Democratic party, writes from Kent county, in that State, that many Democrats there have arrived at the conclusion that the Democratic National Convention was controlled by rebels, aided by sympathizers from the North, East and West, and that if victory was secured such men would again control party movements, and hence will not support Seymour and Blair. The writer of the letter was present in Detroit, when, during the war, a regiment marched up Jefferson avenue, led by a Colonel who was a Democrat, and his old political friends stood in a crowd by the Free Press office, and pointing to the Colonel cried out, "there goes a renegade to his long home." The writer then recounts some of the names of Democratic Michigan officers, who fell in war, and says: "We cannot respect the memory of these dead heroes by walking up to the ballot-box and depositing our ballots to surrender up the flag that they fell fighting under, to the care of Wade Hampton, Forrest & Co."

A NEW BEN ADHEM.

Horatio Seymour (may his troubles cease,)
Awoke one night, f om dreams of fear, not peace;
And saw within the shadow of his room,
All deep and dark with murky gloom,
An angel, writing, in a book of brass,
Of things that were to come to pass.
So, to the angel in his room he said:
"What writest thou?" The angel raised his head,
And with a marvelous look of prophecy,
Said: "The names of Presidents to be."
"And is mine one?" asked Seymour. "Nay, not so,"
The angel said. Then Seymour 'gan to blow,
And rudely said: "I pray thee, then,
Write me as one who'll never run again!"
The angel wrote and vanished. The next night
He came with an all-dazzling light,
And showed the names the people's voice had blest,
And, lo! GRANT'S name led all the rest.

CLAMS, SWEET CLAMS.

FROM A SEA PORT.

I.

With salmon or halibut though we may cram,
If it's only a native there's naught like the clam.
A flavor delicious we find in them here,
While those of our neighbors are tasteless and dear.

Chorus—

Clams! Clams! sweet, sweet clams!
If only they're native, there's nothing like clams.

II.

Deprived of our clams, pleasure dazzles in vain—
Oh, give us our lovely old clam-bakes again,
With clam-diggers freely supplying our call,
And give us that flavor that's dearer than all.

Clamorous chorus—

Clams! Clams! sweet, sweet clams,
There are no clams like our clams, and nothing like clams.

EPHEMERIS.

—Henry Raymond is in Germany.

—Judy says that much of the talk about the can-can is cant.

—Prince Napoleon spent $5,000 a day in Pesth. Pestiferous!

—A lady lost $500 worth of diamonds in the woods near St. Albans, Vt.

—Lord Napier, of Magdala, has sent an Abyssinian Bible to General Grant.

—Judy wants to know "Does a Bishop ever play croquet on his own lawn?"

—White linen breakfast coats are fashionable at Newport. They save napkins.

—Window curtains are relished as an article of food by the Utah grass hoppers.

—Dickens has one redeeming quality, he is very fond of American oysters and terrapin.

—Jacksonville, Fla., is trying to get a line of steamers between that town and New York.

—Judy, poor soul, is anxious to know if the first waiter was born in the days of Cheops.

—Queen Victoria spends $25,000 a year on her kitchen. What a dresser that kitchen must have.

—Sixty reigning belles are reported at Newport. What a pluvial peal of laughter they must make!

—Ten thousand persons are divorced yearly in Indiana; this makes about 5,000 pairs of dividers.

—The new Russian bride that has been found for the King of Bavaria is not yet sixteen years of age.

—Report says that Edwin Forrest, the gey-rate tr-r-r-ragedian, can pronounce child in fourteen syllables.

—The four-in-hands at Newport are disgusted because of a New Yorker named Grey, who drives a six-in-hand.

—Mrs. Lander has a new translation of Marie Antoinette; she evidently intends to Restore (i) the legitimate drama.

—Paris has concluded not to come the dromedary over the rest of the world, and has, therefore, abandoned panniers.

—Bergh evidently doesn't like horse flesh, for he says "rare meat" turns his stomach. (This is a little by-play on the word rear.)

—The Lowell Courier says the best time to go to the beech is when the nuts are ripe. Which is the best time to go to the Beecher.

—Dickens was arrested as a Fenian, in Ireland, and Dolby had to become profane and swear him out of the hands of the police.

—A new race has been discovered in New York; the attention of geologists and antiquaries is directed to it. Horse cars race there now.

—Commodore Stevens left twenty millions of dollars behind him to be divided among his bereaved widow and eight bereaved orphans.

—Offenbach has at length found a rival in Flotow, who has written a new opera called Ombra, which is to be brought out at the Opera Comique at Paris.

—Hepworth Dixon endorses the new Miltonian poem. He also endorses Brigham Young, but even Hep, can't be gotten to endorse Sir Morton Peto's paper.

—If any person would invent a joke to take the place of Base Bawl in the National Game joke book he would deserve a morocco medal from a grateful country.

—Necessity is the mother of invention, and so Chicago has coined a new word. In the Illinois patois, bloviate means to puff one's self, and all Chicagoese are adepts in the art.

—When the Chinese go to Prussia they will meet a fitting rival in Bismarck, who knows the Berlin-game as well as they do, which is more than can be said of Louis Napoleon.

—Bierstadt has taken a studio at Paris. He is so good at painting mountains that we may reasonably hope he will paint some good pictures of the high old times he will have there.

—One of Bur-lin-game's Chinese had a nice little flirtation with an Auburn (not headed) girl, until Burlingame found it out and then they went to Washington leaving the Auburn maiden behind.

—Honesty is the best policy, but it is well there is wickedness some place in the world, as otherwise all men would be honest and all couldn't get the best of it—in which case it would go hard with the women.

—A wretch sprinkled small torpedoes over the muslin-covered floor of a Washington ball room recently and created great excitement. The first lady who trode on one, forgot about torpedoes and thought of the crack of doom.

—Manager Hess has managed to make himself very popular out in Chicago, and on Thursday he had a rousing, popular, complimentary benefit, which we understand did net him some money, and we hope it was a great deal.

—The Boston Post says that New York State will give a Democratic majority of two hundred thousand. The B. P. always was a funny paper, and in this joke we think Quilp has capped the climax and outdone himself at last.

—Louis Napoleon, with his small family, spends just about three times as much, yearly, as did Louis Philippe, which shows how much more an Emperor is worth than a citizen King, and yet at the bourse one louis is considered as good as another.

—The spirit of imitation is strong, even with Presidential candidates. It is said that when the intelligence reached St. Joseph, Mo., that Seymour was last seen on his farm putting in new hay, Blair, who was in the place, immediately put in a little old rye. —Hartford Post.

—The two Alexandres Dumes, father and son, are competitors for the seat in the French Academy vacated by the death of Viennet. If either one of them succeeds in securing it, it will, we believe, be the first instance on record where a man with negro blood in his veins has sat amongst the immortal forty.

—Fashionable young Londoners play croquet in the West End Parks, and have admiring audiences about them, composed of rag tag and bobtail. Pittsburghers can look on this lack of modesty in young London with all the horror they are capable of, as there is no immediate danger of any of us following their example, unless indeed some enthusiasts should try a game on the Second street park.

—At Ems, in Germany, a special pavilion has been built for those patients suffering from chronic catarrh of the air passages. In this pavilion they sit and breathe the air mixed with carbonic acid. The gas is obtained by means of a steam engine, which is constantly throwing it up from a jet of mineral water at the side, which is immediately converted into spray.

—The way of looping up dresses varies. You can, for instance, form folds at the sides and behind, if you have a short dress or a tunic, or at the sides only, if intended for a cassock open in front; on these plaits you fasten a knot of the same material as the skirt, and you have what is called a samargo costume. Other dresses are looped up below the waist, behind, by buttons and small buckles; but the dress which has to be looped up that way must not be very wide; the front is flat, the dress becomes gradually fuller at the sides, and concentrates its whole volume at the back.—Le Follet.

—The recent fearful accident at a music hall in Manchester, Eng., reminds us that we have noticed this English peculiarity; whenever an alarm of fire breaks out in an English place of amusement, the audience becomes intensely excited, and nothing but escape from the building, or death, seems to allay it, while here in America the excitement comes, but if the alarm be false, as it was in Manchester where twenty-five men were crushed to death, calmness settles on the audience as speedily as did the excitement, and the instances of death at an American theatre when the alarm of fire was false, are either very rare or lacking altogether.

Gypsum.

This mineral, which, under the name of plaster, forms so large a part of the exports of Nova Scotia to this country for agricultural purposes, it is stated, has been discovered in Smythe county, Virginia. The Richmond Enquirer, directing the attention of the public to these deposits as one of the unfailing sources of wealth, if properly worked, says: "The main bed is situated in what is called the Cove, on Cove creek, a branch of the North Fork of Holston river, about 25 miles north of Wytheville, and 14 miles east of Saltville, the present terminus of the branch of the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad. The route from thence to the Cove is up the Valley of the Holston, a most favorable line for a railroad—the grades would be about fifteen feet to the mile—descending with the export tonnage.

The quality of this plaster is superior to any now known on this Continent. Such as have had a fair opportunity of testing it with the Nova Scotia, fix their relative value at fifty to one hundred per cent. in favor of the Virginia—that is to say, one ton of the Virginia is equal to one and a half to two of the Nova Scotia. In quantity it is enormous—it underlies hundreds of acres in a compact body.

A well, or shaft, ten feet in diameter, has been sunk at one point. Within four feet from the surface, plaster was reached, and continued (with the exception of a few diminutive seams of clay) for the depth of five hundred and eighty-two feet, and operations suspended without reaching the bottom of the vein or deposit, so continuous was the plaster—no water came in—the plaster continuing of a uniform superior quality throughout.

A Piece of History.

We have been informed of an incident which occurred at the New York Convention, which is full of significance, and shows that from the first it was determined to force upon the party the adoption of Frank Blair's "wiping out" policy. We get our facts from an entirely reliable source, and their perfect authenticity may be depended upon. After Pendleton's defeat became assured, his friends in the Convention took counsel as to whom they should cast their votes for as a second choice. It was determined that all Western names should be ruled out, in order to preserve Pendleton's chances in 1872. Various names were suggested, and among the rest that of Reverdy Johnson. It was conceded that he would make a strong candidate—probably the strongest that could be put up. It was urged, however, as a fatal objection to him—not only by the Pendletonians, but by the rebel delegates—that he had voted for the reconstruction bills in Congress, and that the party was pledged to undo all that had been done under those laws. Reverdy Johnson's name was dropped for that reason alone. No question was raised but that was to be the leading issue in the canvass. Subsequent events have proven that it is the real issue, and that all others are subordinated to it. Southern leaders insist that it shall be openly avowed, and Northern Democrats are rapidly being forced to obey.—Buffalo Com. Adv.

Financial Matters in New York.

Gold Closed at 146⅞@147.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, August 15, 1868.

MONEY AND GOLD.

Money rather more active at 4@5 per cent. on call loans. There is a general feeling in favor of putting up the rate 1 per cent., which will likely be carried into effect the beginning of next week. Sterling dull at 109@109½, Gold firmer and opened at 146½, declined to 146¾, and closed at 146⅞@147. The export to-day was $21,450; for the week, $653,398. Governments heavy and lower. The fact that the gold loans are not considered closed by the Treasury Department tends to weaken the Government bond market. There is growing a fear of further roles in case the Department should want more currency.

The shipments of currency to the West for the week aggregates eleven millions of dollars. The bank statement is unfavorable; loans, $277,808,620; decrease, $1,947,166; specie, $22,953,850; decrease, $1,830,577; in circulation, $34,114,087; increase, $39,714; deposits, $224,561,067; decrease, $8,155,407; legal tenders, $72,935,481; decrease, $1,116,067. The stock market is irregular and generally weak. In addition to the operations in Erie connected with election movements, there has been a strong bear movement inaugurated, under which the whole market is yielding; the tendency towards a more active money market also encourages sales. Considerable amount of short sales have been made, which may prove the occasion of an early turn upwards. Erie sold down to 51¼ and from that advanced to 53¾. The market was heavy and lower at the close, especially on Erie and New York Central. There is very little disposition to buy stock, in the face of a heavy currency movement to the West.

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.

700 MILES

OF THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. 160 miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is an absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, carshops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through traffic that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.

FIRST MORTCAGE BONDS

The Union Pacific Bonds run thirty years, are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office, in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. The price is 102, and at the present rate of gold, they pay a liberal income on their cost.

The Company believe that these Bonds, at the present rate, are the cheapest in the market, and reserve the right to advance the price at any time.

Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

JAMES T. BRADY & Co., corner of Wood and Fourth Streets;
HART, CAUGHEY & Co., corner of Wood and Third Streets;
S. McCLEAN & CO., 75 Fourth Street;
PH. R. MERTZ, corner 5th and Wood Sts.;
ROBINSON BROS., 78 Fourth street;

AND IN NEW YORK

At the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau Street, and by

JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 59 Wall Street, and by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

THE PRIMARY ELECTION.

The Republican Primary Election, held in this city on Saturday last, for candidates for Mayor, Controller and Treasurer, resulted auspiciously for the harmony and success of the party. JARED M. BRUSH was designated for Mayor, ROBT. J. M'GOWAN for Controller, and A. J. COCHRAN for Treasurer. Other highly respectable gentlemen were voted for, and received measures of support highly creditable to their characters and the pretensions set up by their friends in their behalf; and it is no disparagement to them to affirm that the candidates selected are entirely unexceptionable in all particulars, and will command the undivided support of the Republicans of the city.

These nominations were made by no ring or clique of politicians, but by the people themselves. Never in the history of local politics in this neighborhood did primary elections attract a better class of citizens. Voters, impressed with the responsibility which individually rested with them in securing a ticket worthy of their support and confidence, flocked to the polls from the workshop and counting room, and deposited their ballots with all the honesty and dignity of intelligent American citizens. So much for the Crawford county system. We have not heard a word of complaint growing out of the result, or the faintest hint that all was not conducted fairly and honorably. The people have put forward the ticket, and they will certainly secure its election in October.

Our friends throughout the State, and elsewhere, need have no apprehensions of a repetition of the result exhibited at our last municipal election.

THE Republicans of Schuylkill county have nominated WASHINGTON REIF SNYDER, JOHN LUCAS and LUTHER R. KIEFFER for Assembly. The Republicans of York county, JAMES GRIFFITH and HENRY KEYSER.

MR. DOOLITTLE is to run as the Democratic candidate for Congress in the first District of Wisconsin; but General PAINE, the Republican candidate, will beat him, the renegade, handsomely.

WE are under obligation to the Hon. JAMES K. MOORHEAD and to the Hon. THOMAS WILLIAMS for important public documents.

FIGURES FOR EVERY CITIZEN.

Cost of the Rebellion—Entire Receipts and Expenditures for Seven Years—The Public Debt—Federal Taxation.

We have applied to official sources for exact information on certain points of considerable interest to the tax-paying people and the results of our enquiries are embodied in the statements annexed. Every fact cited and figure repeated in this article are taken from the Annual Reports of the Secretary of the Treasury, submitted to Congress for the fiscal years ending respectively and seriatim from June 30, 1860 to June 30, 1867, with the data for the year ending in June last (to be reported by the Secretary to Congress in December next) which are from the recent official statement of Commissioner WELLS, the authenticity of which no man can question, and for the current year, ending June 30, 1869, from the estimates of the various departments, as revised, cut down and appropriated for at the last session. These appropriations, be it remembered, limit all drafts upon the Treasury, and not a dollar can be lawfully expended beyond the authority thus given by the representatives of the people, and the amounts thus authorized are therefore assumed, under the uniform practice of the Government from its earliest days, as making the extent of probable expenditures.

We propose to show:

I. The money cost of the late rebellion, including therein the expenses of the War and Navy Departments, interest paid on the public debt, the cost of Reconstruction and of the Freedmen's Bureau, up to the period when all these expenses, except for interest on the debt, shall have ceased.

II. The aggregate receipts and expenditures of the Government for the eight years ending June 30, '61, to June 30, '68, inclusive.

III. Where the money came from, which we have thus expended.

IV. How this money has been expended.

V. A statement of the Public Debt at various periods from July 1, '60, to August 1, '68.

VI. The present condition of our system of Federal taxation.

We invite to these statements the fullest consideration of every reader who is a taxpayer, and challenge the most critical examination of the figures submitted, in reference to the official reports of sworn officers of the Federal Government. The wildest and most absurd misrepresentations of the real state of facts have been indulged in by Democratic presses and public speakers, the greater part of whom err through simple ignorance, their incompetency to understand the details of financial questions, or their willful and reckless disregard of the truth. The country is already vocal with these persons, many of them candidates for office, for Congress and the State Legislatures, who either knowingly and purposely state what they know to be untrue, or who exhibit a degree of ignorance and incapacity not only disqualifying them for the positions they have the assurance and vanity to ask for, but establishing their entire unfitness to be trusted as political teachers, or to be respected as men of ordinary veracity and common sense.

I. THE COST OF THE REBELLION.

Expenses of the War Department, Years Ending June 30th.

1862.....	$ 394,368,407 38	1866.....	$ 284,449,701 82
1863.....	599,298,600 83	1867.....	95 224,415 63
1864.....	690,791,842 97	1868.....	123,246,648 62
1865.....	1,031,323,360 79
		Total....	$3,218,702,928 02

Expenses for the year ending June 30th, 1861, were estimated at $20,000,000; for the year ending June 30th, 1869, there were estimated and appropriated for, $33,081,118. A small part of this latter sum is estimated for war claims remaining unpaid, but we will accept it as representing the proper expenses of that Department when peace shall be fully restored, all the war-debt liquidated into another form, and the military service of the Republic brought back to its normal condition, commensurate with the material growth of the people. The Department cost, for the year ending June 30th, 1860, $16,409,767 10. It is fair to assume that its proper expenses, had no rebellion or civil disturbance required their expansion, would have averaged, for the seven years from July 1st, 1861 to July 1st, 1868, not over $30,000,000 per annum. Deduct therefore $210,000,000 from the above aggregate and it leaves the proper expenses of the Rebellion in that Department at $3,008,702,928 02.

Expenses of the Navy Department—same years.

1861-'62.....	$ 42,674,569 69	1865-'66.....	$ 43,324,118 52
1862-'63.....	63,211,105 27	1866-'67.....	31,034,011 04
1863-'64.....	85,733,292 77	1867-'68.....	25,775,502 72
1864-'65.....	122,567,776 12
		Total.....	$414,320,376 13

The Navy cost $11,513,150 19 in the year ending June 30th, 1860, and was estimated at $12,000,000 for the year ending June 30th, 1861, but probably cost more, as that included three months of the rebellion. The estimates and appropriations for the current year ending next June are $17,300,000. We take therefore an average of $15,000,000 for the proper expenses independent of the war, and, deducting for the seven years, $105,000,000, have a balance of $308,340,376 13 to carry up against the rebel Democracy.

Interest Paid on the Public Debt.

1861-'2.....	$12,190,324 45	1865-'6.....	$133,067,741 60
1862-'3.....	24,729,846 61	1866-'7.....	144,781,501 91
1863-'4.....	53,685,421 69	1867-'8.....	141,635 551 00
1864-'5.....	77,397,712 00
		Total.....	$687,488,189 35

This item is as properly chargeable in the account, as if it had been money directly spent for powder and ball. The estimate of interest to be paid during the current year is much reduced, being only $126,000,000. Mark that!

The Freedmen's Bureau.

The accounts in the Treasury Department show that the total expense of this Bureau, since its organization, have been but $5,617,000, no small part of which has been expended to provide food for starving Southern Democrats.

Expenses of Reconstruction.

The Treasury accounts show that the expenditures contingent upon the Reconstruction acts of Congress have been $2,344,700.56, total to June 30th, last. This does not include the proper military expenses for the armed forces, retained in the Southern States to regulate and restrain the rebel allies of our Copperhead Democracy from cutting the throats of their Union neighbors, and renewing their fight for the "Lost Cause." These expenses are already included in those given for the War Department proper. And, as all the expenditures for Reconstruction and the Freedmen are so included, we do not now charge them up again in the total account. We sum up as follows:

Total Expenses of the Rebellion.

War Department	$3,068,702,928 02
Navy Department	308,340,376 13
Interest paid on debt	587,488,189 35
Total ascertained expenses	$3,904,531,493 50

—and the $126,000,000 of interest to be paid this year on the debt will more than swell, at the end of the current fiscal year, the money cost of the great Democratic rebellion to the terrible total of four thousand millions of dollars! How soon can we afford to have another, such as they threaten us with?

II. AGGREGATE RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES FOR THE EIGHT YEARS ENDING JUNE 30, 1868.

The Receipts for each year, from all sources, were as follows:

1860-'61.....	$ 86,835,900 27	1864-'65.....	$1,898,532,533 04
1861-'62.....	583,885,247 06	1865-'66.....	1,273,960,215 20
1862-'63.....	111,389,766 48	1866-'67.....	490 634,010 27
1863-'64.....	365,961,761 65	1867-'68.....	406,300,000 00
Total receipts for eight years.....			$5,117,569,433 97

The Expenditures for the same period have been:

1860-'61.....	$ 84,578,834 47	1864-'65.....	$1,897,674,224 00
1861-'62.....	570,841,700 25	1865-'66.....	1,141,072,666 09
1862-'63.....	714,709,995 58	1866-'67.....	346,729,129 33
1863-'64.....	865,234,087 86	1867-'68.....	400,300,000 00
Total expenditures for eight years..			$6,027,140,000 00

This apparent discrepancy of about $900,000,000, between receipts and expenses, may be briefly explained. The figures for each year above include the balances which are carried over, and which ought to be deducted from the actual summary of the year's transactions. For example, in all the years named, except '63 and '64, these balances varied from $2,000,000 to $144,000,000, making in all about $325,000,000, while in the two excepted years the deficit on the other side was about $1,203,000,000, The balance represents substantially the discrepancy above shown. It is evident, of course, that this balance or apparent deficit is fully accounted for in the public debt, into which it has been carried. It is also to be observed that large amounts on each side of the account, and for each year since 1861, represent merely changes in the form of the debt, the shifting of certificates into seven-thirties, legal-tender notes, or bonds of the various authorized issues, and to that extent are independent of the actual receipts and expenses of the year, although included in the annual financial statement. Making these deductions, the aggregate of monies actually received and spent would appear considerably less than above stated.

III. THE SOURCES WHICH YIELDED THE FUNDS.

During the eight years ending June 30th, 1868, the receipts from all sources, except loans, amounted to $2,340,848,603.35. For one year, 1863, this includes receipts from all sources whatever. These receipts were derived from customs, direct taxes, internal revenue, lands, captured and abandoned property and miscellaneous items generally. The customs, taxes and internal revenue were the channels through which the money of the people was received by the tax gatherer. Deduct the amount thus realized from the total of receipts, and the balance, $2,776,660,830.62, was every dollar of it raised by loans of various descriptions based upon the National credit, and making up our present National debt.

IV. HOW THE MONEY HAS BEEN EXPENDED.

We have above shown what it has cost the country to put down the Rebellion. Let us look at the other expenses incurred during this period. The following table shows the ordinary expenses, excluding those for the War and Navy Departments and on account of the Debt. It comprehends all other expenses of the country, incident to its necessities in war or peace. These are grouped by the Secretary under the heads of the Civil Service, Pensions and the Indians. The figures are:

1860-'1* ....$	32,000,000 00	1864-'5..... $	59,024,133 50
1861-'2.....	24,511,476 66	1865-'6.....	59,909,378 45
1862-'3.....	27,470,442 87	1866-'7.....	76,689,110 75
1863-'4.....	35,053,530 43	1867-'8.....	63,741,956 95
Total of ordinary expenses.....			$378,400,039 61

*Estimated.

The estimates and appropriations for the current year show a still further reduction to $40,000,000, which is very nearly down to the mark of our expenditure in the last year of Mr. BUCHANAN'S administration. Large amounts have been applied to the reduction of the public debt. The last Treasury report states "the actual reduction from Sept. 1, '65 to Oct. 31, '67," at $266,185,121.43. From Oct. 31, '65, to August 1, '68, it is officially reported as reduced in the sum of $285,014,956.88, without throwing out the $32,210,000 of Railway bonds. Let us add to these items the cost of the war, as above given, together with the sums which we deducted from the expenditures in the War and Navy Departments, as allowance for their average annual cost under the ordinary conditions of peace:

Expenses of rebellion proper.....	$4,105,636,383,07
Ordinary expenses War Department seven years estimate.....	210,000,000,00
Ordinary expense of Navy Department seven years estimate.....	105,000,000,00
Ordinary expense of civil service, &c., seven years.....	378,400,039,11
Reduction of Public Debt.....	285,014,956,88
	$5,084,051,379,06
Add for all expenditures, 1860-61.....	84,578,834,47
Total of expenditures.....	$5,168,630,213,53

This shows a slight excess over the total of receipts as stated above, but, as we have remarked, the exclusion of all transactions concerning the debt from both sides of the account, and the omission of the respective balances and deficits would reconcile the difference.

STATEMENT OF THE PUBLIC DEBT.

July 1, '60..$	64,769,703,08	Oct. 31, '65..$	2,808,549,437,55
July 1, '61...	90,837,828 68	June 30, '66	2,650,538,330,10
July 1, '62..	514,211,371,92	Oct. 31, '66	2,551,424,121,20
July 1, '63..1,098,793,181,37		June 30, '67	2,511,800,013,33
July 1, '64..1,740,690,489,49		Aug. 1, '68.	2,523,534,480,67
July 1, '65..2,681,734,717,38

Deducting from the last report, the sum of $32,100,000 for bonds issued to the Pacific Railway Companies which are to be provided for, principal and interest, by the companies, but, being guaranteed by government, are noted in the Report as part of our debt, we have the amount of debt actually due on the 1st of August, 1868 to be $2,491,324,480.67, an actual reduction of the gross debt from its highest point in October, 1865, of $317,224,956.88, or more than one hundred millions per annum. The interest account also begins to run down, in proportion as the principal is paid off. The country saves fifteen millions of dollars in that way this year.

The total expenditures for the current year, including the extraordinary payments for interest, pensions, bounties, &c., cannot exceed $198,500,000, and that amount is appropriated accordingly. The receipts on the other hand, are estimated by the Secretary at $381,000,000, of which the customs and internal revenue furnish $350,000,000. Said the Secretary, in December last:

"These estimates are made on the general average of the receipts and expenditures for the past nine months. The Secretary is hopeful, however, that Congress will take measures to largely reduce expenditures in all branches of the service, so that a steady reduction of the debt may be continued."

Congress did take such measures, cutting down the expenditures from his estimate of $372,000,000 to $198.500,000 appropriated for. If the receipts hold up to his estimate, as they are likely to do, a surplus of $182,500,000 will be applicable to the reduction of the debt. And in this way the debt is finally to be paid off.

In 1816, at the close of our second war with Great Britain, the Republic, with a population not exceeding eight millions, owed a public debt of $127,334,933.74, and paid it all off in twenty years. Large as is our present debt, our forty millions of people, wielding the resources of a continent, will not find it so great a burthen as their fathers felt the war debt of 1816, to be, fifty years ago.

The reader will perceive, in examining the above statement, that when Mr. BUCHANAN and the Democracy retired, in March '61, from their mal-administration of the government, they left an already existing debt of nearly ninety millions of dollars, for which, in a partizan point of view, only they, and not the Republicans, are responsible.

VI. THE PRESENT STATE OF TAXATION.

When the late war closed, taxation was universal: it covered about everything except land, agricultural produce, unmanufactured lumber, breadstuffs and a few other forms of property or product. At least ten thousand distinct articles were then subject to tax. Now, after three years, there is nothing taxed for Federal purposes except spirits, liquors, tobacco manufactures, gas, matches, and playing cards; a stamp tax upon perfumery, medicines, and a few other things, and upon written instruments, and a reduced tax upon incomes, a license-tax and the tax upon watches, plate, and carriages. The amount of taxes abated or repealed since the close of the war has been officially estimated by the Commissioner of Revenue as follows:

By act of July 13th, '66.....	$60,000,000
" " " March 2d, '67.....	40,000,000
" " " February 3d, '68.....	23,769,000
" " " March 31st, '68.....	43,50 ,000
Total.....	$167,269,000

The burthen of Federal taxation no longer affects the masses of the people. It bears upon wealth, luxury and personal indulgence. As such, the people will prefer it to the new Democratic theory of equal taxation, which is to press upon the farmer and his products equally with the wealthy capitalist.

VII. CONCLUSIONS.

Let the citizens, therefore, remember these facts, which are established by the most ample official authority, and each of which, as stated by us in this article, are correctly cited, and may be corroborated by reference to the authentic documents.

1st. The cost in money of the Rebellion was over four thousand millions of dollars.

2nd. Of this cost, very nearly one-half, that is to say three-eighths, have been already paid and forever discharged. Of this whole forty-one hundred millions, only twenty-five hundred millions remain unpaid, in the shape of the existing public debt.

3d. The Republican party, administering the National affairs for seven years, have, in that period, encountered and crushed the most formidable rebellion ever known to a civilized people, meeting and discharging all the ordinary expenses of the Government and very nearly one-half of the cost of the rebellion itself.

4th. With the restoration of peace, and the completed reconstruction of nearly all the rebellious States, the cost of the public service, in all departments, has been brought back to the anti-war standard. Excluding the extra expenses in the current year, ending next June, such as interest on debt, pensions, bounties, &c., Commissioner WELLS estimates the regular expenses of the nation for the year at $90,381,013 00, which amount, and no more, has been appropriated therefor by Congress. The last two years of BUCHANAN'S administration showed a regular expenditure of $81,000,000 and $86,000,000 respectively. The slight increase for 1868-9 is fairly due to the growth of the nation in that period. With these allowances, the Republican policy costs no more than that of its predecessors.

5th. More than one-half of the money spent in the last eight years was borrowed, and more than one-tenth of this borrowed money is already paid. The rest of the money was obtained either from the regular anti-war sources, or from taxes, the greater part of which are now abated.

6th. The existing Federal taxes do not bear upon the masses of the people directly. The receipts into the Treasury come mainly from customs, i. e. duties upon goods imported from foreign countries, and from the internal revenue, the principal sources thereof being tobacco, distilled spirits and fermented liquors. If these are honestly collected this year by Mr. JOHNSON'S agents, the yield will meet all the requirements of the Treasury without constituting an onerous burthen upon the people. No other Federal taxes are levied, except upon gas, matches, playing cards, perfumery, cosmetics, patent medicines, and a few other manufactured articles, incomes, licenses, watches, carriages and plate. Such a "burthen" as these constitute, people who understand the matter, will not consider very distressing.

7th. The Federal taxes, abated or repealed, in the last two years, are estimated at $167,000,000 annually. These taxes were taken off because, with the reduction of expenditures, the payment of the public debt within a reasonable period, could be effected without them. To that extent, therefore, the public burthens were diminished.

8th. Every dollar of the money received in seven years stands faithfully and honestly accounted for. If there has been any "Radical extravagance," it has consisted entirely in the necessary payments for the expense of that rebellion which Democracy brought upon us. No doubt, it is "extravagant" in a Democratic point of view, to buy powder and ball, pay soldiers, build ships, raise armies, equip fleets, take care of the wounded, bury the killed, pension the crippled veterans, the widows and the orphans—all to uphold the integrity of the Union. Doubtless, it is equally "extravagant" to undertake to pay either the interest or the principal of the money borrowed upon the Nation's credit. It is against Democratic principles to pay that interest, and against their interest to pay that principal. But an honest people will honestly meet all its obligations.

9th. In three years, since the war closed, nearly eleven per cent. of the debt has been paid off. Republican economy faithfully responds to the popular expectations, and to the hope expressed by Secretary MCCULLOCH, by continuing the curtailment of expenses, and his estimates show that a large further reduction of the debt may be made this year. If the Democracy do not plunge us into another civil war, the present scale of receipts and expenditures will enable us to pay off the entire debt within the present generation.

"It must be acknowledged that the manner in which the newspapers conduct the political campaign is not creditable to the civilization of our country."—Philadelphia News.

The journal that makes this statement more constantly and grossly offends against correct taste and the decencies of social life, in its treatment of politicians whom it dislikes, than any other newspaper in Pennsylvania.

IT seems the President wants an Attorney General who will take such views of all law questions as shall coincide with his preconceived opinions, and does not find that person in Mr. EVARTS.

An Ultra Democat.

Some men are insane enough to think Horatio Seymour a great man. The "loudest" admirer of the Governor that we have heard of, however, is a well-known lawyer of Watkins, N. Y., who expressed his admiration of the great decliner in the following forcible, if not elegant, language a few days ago: "Horatio Seymour, sir," said he, "is the greatest man that God Almighty ever made, unless I must except Wilkes Booth!"

The following doggerel lines, exhibited on the wall at the town of Watkins, are attributed to the same lawyer:

"Here's to the man
That pulled the trigger
That killed the old cuss
That freed the nigger!"

PITTSBURGH justly claims the leading ladies' school in Pennsylvania—the Pittsburgh Female College—and one of the first in the Union. It has twenty-two teachers, and catalogued, last year, three hundred and forty-seven pupils gathered from twelve States.

IS YOUR DISEASE RHEUMATISM?

Many persons, supposing they are suffering from this disease, have applied Liniments, Plasters and other Rheumatic Remedies without obtaining any relief, when in fact the cause of pain is a derangement of the Kidneys. These are small organs, but very important, and any obstruction or interference with its functions are indicated by pain in the back and loins, languor and weakness, difficulty in avoiding and unnatural color of the urine. A Diuretic should t once be resorted to.

SHATTERED CONSTITUTIONS.

Our constitutions are elastic. They are not easily shattered. In fact, strictly speaking, Death alone can shatter them, for they represent the reserve of vitality, which enables the enfeebled system to react, when the pressure of disease is removed from it. But it is the fashion, when the body is weak, the circulation languid, the nerves tremulous and the mind depressed, to say that the constitution is ruined, or broken down, or shattered. In cases of the kind described, administer HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS and it will soon be seen how little ground there is for this stereotyped note of alarm. The tonic and alterative properties of the specific, rapidly diffused through the whole organization by the stimulant which forms the basis, will immediately create a favorable reaction, and this reanimating process will go on as the medicine is continued, until strength, health and mental activity are completely restored. Every day cures of this kind are accomplished. Let the debilitated invalid, when told by his condoling friends that "his constitution is shattered," have recourse at once to this strength-recruiting preparation, in which the finest stomachics and alteratives of the vegetable kingdom are represented, and he will soon be able to meet their gloomy forebodings with a confident smile, and to announce that he has taken a new lease of life under its vitalizing operation.

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE EAR.

In observations and notes taken by Dr. KEYSER, of this city, on the various diseases of the ear, he says that nine out of ten cases could be cured in their incipiency if application were made to some responsible and competent aural surgeon. The Doctor quotes from the opinion of Wilde, a well known aural surgeon, who says: "I fear not to reiterate the assertion which I made on several former occasions, that if the disease of the ear were as well studied or understood by the generality of practitioners, and as early attended to as those of the eye, it would be found that they were just as much within the pale of scientific treatment. * * Deafness is so common and so distressing an infirmity, and when of long standing so incurable, that we cannot too strongly urge all medical practitioners to make themselves familiar with the treatment of the diseases of the ear."

The Doctor says that nearly all annoying Discharges, Buzzings and Morbid Growths peculiar to the organ of the hearing, some of which had lingered through a score or two of years, can be cured or ameliorated by proper treatment.

☞THE APPETITE FOR

Tobacco Destroyed!

Leave off Chewing and Smoking the Poisonous Weed, Tobacco.

One box of ORTON'S PREPARATION IS WARRANTED to destroy the appetite for tobacco in any person, no matter how strong the habit may be, ☞ IF IT FAILS IN ANY CASE THE MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED. It is almost impossible to break off from the use of tobacco by the mere exercise of the will. Something is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit so firmly rooted; with the help of the preparation there is not the least trouble. Hundreds have used it who are willing to bear witness to the fact that ORTON'S PREPARATION completely destroys the appetite for tobacco and leaves the person as free from any desire for it as before he commenced its use. It is perfectly safe and harmless in all cases. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by tobacco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing the poison of tobacco from the system, and thus allaying the unnatural cravings of tobacco.

NO MORE HANKERING FOR TOBACCO AFTER USING ORTON'S PREPARATION! RECOLLECT IT IS WARRANTED. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession:

[From W. P. Heald, Esq., Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., April 24, 1868.

I hereby certify that I have used tobacco for thirty years past, and for the last fifteen years I have used two pounds per month. I have made attempts to leave off at different times. I have left on one year at a time, but always continued to hanker for it until I used Orton's Preparation, which has completely cured me of the appetite for tobacco. I would recommend all who are affected with this terrible habit to try the preparation, which will certainly cure it if the directions are followed.

W. P. HEALD.

[From E. W. Adkins, Knoxville, Tenn.]

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., August 5, 1867.

This is to certify that I had used tobacco to such an extent that my health had become greatly impaired, and my whole system deranged and broken down. In June, 1867, I purchased one box of Orton's Preparation, and after using it I found that I was completely cured. I have not had any hankering or desire for tobacco since using the preparation. I believe it to be all that it is recommended, and I would advise all who wish to quit the use of tobacco to try one box of Orton's Preparation.

E. W. ADKINS.

[From John Morrill, Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., March 24, 1868.

This is to certify that I have used tobacco for eighteen years; have tried many times to leave off, but have suffered so much from a dizziness in my head, and gnawing at my stomach, that I have soon given up the trial. A short time since a friend induced me to try Orton's Preparation (sold by you.) I have done so, and am completely cured. I did not in the least hanker after tobacco, either to smoke or chew, after I began to use the Preparation.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, August 15, 1868.

Gold remained steady to-day at 146¼ to 146¾, with a moderate business. Most of the importers and speculators short in gold covered themselves, no doubt warned by the fate of the two large speculators who had failed the day previous. The line of shorts being thus considerably reduced, gold is quite plenty, and loans at three per cent. per annum. Unless a strong effort is made within the next few days to rally the market, lower rates may be established before a material advance can take place.

Government securities are very dull and weak, and there seems to be no demand for investment but rather a strong pressure to sell by banks and private speculators. In the stock market the heavy fall of Erie could not fail to disturb the rest of the list. There are very few buyers, and if the cliques do not come in as such on Monday, a panic can scarcely be avoided.

Men of limited means have recently been tempted to buy Erie, Michigan Southern and Ohio and Mississippi certificates, encouraged by the success they met in the North Western shares and by the offices of middle men to cary their stocks at small margins and force extra commission. If habitues of Broad street can not sav ethemselves on a declining market it would be much more difficult to make money (by parties who have bought for a rise,) when 500 miles away from the markt. A timely warning was given to the small ring formed here some time ago on Cleveland and Pittsburgh stock and those few who saved themselves endorsed the correcness of the reviews expressed in these columns. The same warning would have been given to the Erie speculators gratuitiously, if a communication could have reached in time. There are but few brokers here who are thoroughly informed and who possess sufficient firmness of character to reject all business of a speculative nature not founded on fundamental principles. Scarcely more than one per cent out of the multitude of speculators are finaly successful in their operations and even then they are unfit for regular business, the eagerness for large profits causing them overlook the small gains derived from legitimate business.

—The New York Stock quotations to-day as received by Mr. Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold 146¾; 1881's, 114⅞; 5-20's, 1852, 113¾; do 1864, 109¼; do 1865, 111½; do new, 108⅜; do 1867, 107⅜; 10-40's, 108⅝; Cleveland & Pittsburgh 86; Fort Wayne, 108¼; Western Union Telegraph 33¼; Adams Express, 52; Erie, 53¼.

—The statement of the approximate earnings of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway for the month of July shows that the total receipts were $571,833, against $537,381 in corresponding month last year, being an increase of $34,452. The expenses for the month were $2,964 less than in July last year, the net earnings being $206,956, an excess of $37,417 of the same item in July, 1867. The net earnings for the seven months of 1868 were $1,563,926, and $471,008 more than the net earnings in the same time last year.

—The New York Times says: "The Open Board of Brokers this afternoon unanimously expelled from membership Mr. Samuel Strong, who last week, overdrew his bank account, fraudulently tranferred part of the proceeds to his relatives, and disappeared from the street with the remainder."

—The New York Tribune, of Friday, says: The reports of the crops published this morning are considered very favorably. West of the lakes the crop is from 30 to 50 per cent, greater than last year, and Western railway shares are held with great confidence by their friends, who are more sanguine than ever of the value of their property, and predict much higher prices during the Autumn, based upon heavy earnings to be made during the next five months. The shipment of currency to move the crop has already commenced, and the amount shipped for the week will be fully $2,500,000. As the banks start to meet the drain with $2,000,000 less greenbacks and with $22,000,000 more deposits than at this time last year, the bank movement will be watched with much interest both by merchants and stock-jobbers.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, August 15.—The weather is delightful and trade is fairly active, especially in seasonable styles of worsted and woolen goods and silk ribbons, but still a little quiet in cotton fabrics, but prices are generally firm at 17a17⅛c for brown standard sheetings; 14½a14c for prints of best makes; 12½c for mourning prints; 12c for brown standard drills; 18c for Lancaster ginghams; 17c for Glasgows; 20c for delaines of leading makes; 18c for Sprargues; 21c for Pacific Armures; 26½c for Harvest A. Denims; 30c for Otis A X A and Carlton do; 13c for Lonesdale paper Cambries, and 14½c for Red Cross and Green Star Wiggins.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, August 15, 1868.

The general markets during the past week have been moderataly active with a slight increase in the volume of business, though there is still plenty of room for improvement. Some few articles in consequence of a temporary scarcity, have appreciated slightly, while others, for an exactly opposite cause, have depreciated; but as a general thing, there have been no very important changes, one way or the other. The demand for all of the leading articles continues to be restricted to supplying the immediate wants of the local trade, and there is a general absence of anything like a speculative feeling, which is owing to the doubt and uncertainty in regard to the future. Speculators, as a general thing, have been unfortunate during the past year or two, and there has been so many failures, some of them very very bad ones, that those who have the means and disposition are afraid to "pitch in" for fear they might meet with a similar fate.

BUTTER—Is coming in quite freely but as yet prices are maintained, good to prime bringing 30c to 33c.

EGGS—Continue very dull, with a supply largely in excess of the demand; sales of common at 15c to 16c, and fresh packed at 17c to 18c.

CHEESE—Is steady but unchanged at 14c to 15c for Western Reserve and Hamburg; 16c to 17c for Factory; and 20c for Sweitzer.

HAY—Is being sold from country wagons at $20 to $28 per ton, as to quality.

GREEN APPLES—Are in good supply and drooping; we now quote good to prime at $4 to $5.

POTATOES—Quiet and unchanged at $3 to $3,50 per bbl.

SALT—Is quiet and unchanged at $1,75 to $1,80 to the trade, and $2 in a retail way.

GRAIN—The receips of Wheat continue liberal, though the great proportion of the arrivals are consigned to the milis; dealers are not doing much as the margin, if sold here, is light, and it wont bear shipment to any of the Eastern markets. The Western markets are dull and weak, with a declining tendency, and the Eastern markets are quiet and unchanged. We continue to quote prime Red at $2,10 to $2,15, and White at $2,18 to $2,20. Prime Yellow Corn may be quoted at $1,12 and mixed from 3c to 5c less. New Oats cannot be quoted above 65c, while old remain unchanged. New Rye is in demand at $1,30 to $1,35, to arrive; no old in market. No fixed price for Barley as yet.

LARD OIL—Is firm but unchanged at $1,15 for No. 2, and $1,45 for No. 1.

PROVISIONS—The panic caused by the cattle plague has considerably increased the demand for the hog product, and prices are firm at the recent advance. We continue to quote at 14 for Shoulders; 16½ to 16¾ for Ribbed, and 18½ to 18¾ for Clear Sides, and 22 to 22¼ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard 19¾ and Mess Pork $30 to $30,50.

FLOUR—There is no improvement to note in the demand, and while the market is quiet and dull, prices are without essential change. Buyers, both dealers and consumers, take hold very sparingly in anticipation of a still further decline, and, as a consequence, the volume of business in the aggregate is light. The mills quote as follows: Double Extra, $11 in bbls, and $10,70 in sacks; Extra Family, $10,50 in bbls, and $10,20 in sacks. Rye Flour, $9,25 to $9,50.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBUGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, August 15, 1868.

CRUDE—The crude market has been unsettled and panicky throughout the entire week, and the volume of business has been comparatively light. To-day there was not a single sale reported, and we do not believe that there was a single one effected; there were some few buyers and sellers, and although at times they got very close together, yet about the time a transaction was being closed, something would turn up to prevent the sale. Early in the day it is said there were offers to sell spot oil at 13c, with 12½c bid; later in the day there were offers to buy at 13c, but no sellers. September, it was thought, could have been bought at 13½c, though so far as we could learn, there were no plump offers to sell. Indeed, as already noted, the trade has been in a turbulent and unsettled condition throughout the week; in nearly every case when an offer was made to sell no matter how low the figure, buyers would ask for a still further reduction; subsequently, finding that it was impossible to buy below that figure, the buyer would conclude to accept; then the seller would back water, and state that his offer was off. In this way, there was a large amount of dickering, and at the same time but very little done. From Oil City, there were offers to sell at $5, but buyers in order to avoid risk, detention, etc., etc., prefer buying delivered here. During the week, sales were made all the way from $5,50 down to $5,10, with, as we have already stated, offers to sell to-day at the even $5.

REFINED—The market was somewhat firmer to-day, and with considerable inquiry and but few sellers, prices, especially for the last half of August, ruled a shade higher. We can report 500 bbls spot, at 32c; 500 last half of August, at 33c; 500 September, at 33½c; and 1000 each for September and October, at 33½c. At the close, there were additional offers for the last half of August at 33½c, and no sellers, and nearly all of the oil above noted was taken on Pittsburgh account. The shipments east continue large, averaging the last week between three and four thousand barrels per day, and it is said that stocks are accumulating both in New York and Philadelphia, and this, we presume, has something to do with the stagnation which has prevailed for some time past. It is thought by some, however, that the present dull spell will not be of very long dnration, and that it will be followed by a stronger market and better prices.

Last Moments of Thaddeus Stevens.

About nine o'clock two colored clergymen, the Rev. Mr. Hall and the Rev. Mr. Reed, both of the Israel Methodist Church, arrived, and requested permission to see Mr. Stevens and pray with him. It is a curious coincidence one of them stood by the bedside of John Quincy Adams, and prayed with him in his last illness. Mr. Stevens was asked whether they should be admitted. He replied (and these were probably the last connected words that he uttered): "Certainly, certainly." They entered the room. He turned on his side and reached his hand to one of them. A hymn was sung and a few prayers were offered; after which they departed, at about 8 o'clock. At about 9 o'clock Dr. Young again called, and had a brief interview with his patient. The Doctor pronounced him dying, and so told him. Mr. Stevens looked at him and nodded his head, but made no reply.

Dr. Young informed the household that his patient would in all probability die before morning. Sisters Loretta and Genevieve, of Providence Hospital, entered the room at about 10 o'clock. It was now evident that death was not far distant. Mr. Stevens became weaker and weaker. The Sisters of Charity knelt by the bed and began to pray. Mr. Stevens reached his hand to one of them and she held it several minutes. After they had finished praying, Mr. Stevens took more ice, and small pieces were put in his mouth once or twice after that. Thaddeus Stevens, Jr., Simon Stevens, Mrs. Smith, the Sisters of Charity, Mr. J. Scott Patterson, of the Interior Department, and the servants of the house, were in the room at the time. The Sisters of Charity had learned through some channel that Mr. Stevens had never been baptised, and requested his permission to perform the ceremony. He said that he had no objections, and one of the sister's took a glass of water, and pouring it on his head, pronounced the words "I baptize thee, Thaddeus Stevens, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, Amen."

Mr. Stevens expired precisely at twelve o'clock, about ten minutes after his baptism. He opened his eyes once or twice, and then closed them for ever. The persons above mentioned were the only ones present at the death-scene. The Sisters of Charity immediately began to recite the prayers for the dead, which were soon finished. His death was so quiet that those in the room, especially the women, could not believe that he was really dead; but it was so. His features remain natural, and his face wears the same calm, earnest expression which was stamped on it in life. The intelligence was speedily telegraphed all over the country.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Tribune.

Bursting of a Glacier.

A correspondent of the London papers gives the following account of a singular occurrence at Chamounix, Savoy, on July, 23: "At ten minutes to five a dark cloud overshadowed the valley of Chamounix, a peal of thunder was heard, and then a continuous roar that awakened every soul in the village, caused every eye to strain itself in the direction of the Aiguille Blaitiere. At this moment no sign could be seen of the cause of so much commotion. Presently a puff of smoke, as it so appeared on the crest of the mountain that supports the Clacier des Pelerins, raised the cry that the glacier had burst, bringing with it part of the moraine that had kept it within bounds.

"The peasants of the valley were rushing to and fro, driving the cattle into safe quarters, and then all eyes were watching one of the most glorious and overwhelming sights the visitors to Chamounix could desire to see. My pen is too weak to describe the commotion this mighty avalanche created, every moment adding fuel to its course, tossing up clouds of spray, bringing with it pine trees, huge boulders, rude bridges, and deserted chalets, until it reached the pretty Casoade du Dard, when the noise was most deafening. The falling masses here, filling the gully and gaining speed at every exertion, left the course which the stream usually takes, and tearing down pine trees opened an immense track and overflowed the meadows and gardens of the Hotel Royal, destroying whole fields of barley and potatoes, and, after spending its fury for twenty minutes on meadow and peasant land, this muddy mass formed itself into a large lake, which will remain some time to be regarded by tourists as an event which is very rare in the valley of the Chamounix."

Suicide of a Brilliant Frenchman.

[From the New Orleans Picayune.]

Much interest is being manifested among the old residents in regard to the recent suicide of Mr. A. Caussaur. For more than twenty years he has been a resident of New Orleans, and during the most of that period has occupied a prominent place in society. Lately he had fallen into evil courses and great poverty, but maintained his footing in good society. He was the son of a Colonel of Cuirassiers in the armies of Napoleon I., and was born in the Island of Martinique, during a mission of his father to that colony, but he was raised in France, and received an education of the highest order. He has always been recognized as a man of culture and during the latter part of his life was correspondent of the Courier des Etats Unis, from this city. He was at one time engaged in the labor of making sugar, and in granulating was regarded as the most skillful man in the State. He was subsequently employed in the French Consul's office at the time of the seizure of the $800,000 by Gen. Butler, belonging to the Citizen's Bank, but in consequence of some transactions growing out of that event he has lost his estate, and the favor of his friends was withdrawn. He sank into poverty, but somehow contrived always to be elegantly dressed. The immediate cause of his death was the refusal of his landlord to extend him further credit. A brilliant man of the world, he now fills a pauper's grave.

Of BONNETS, a foreign fashion writer remarks:—"Straw hats are greatly in vogue. Some are surrounded by a black lace scarf, and trimmed with a tuft of flowers and a drooping garland. Others, in black straw, are bound round the edges with satin of the same color, the crown being ornamented with a row of satin bows right across it, and a large tuft of mingled flowers and feathers. Plainer ones in English straw, with a narrow wreath of flowers around the crown and a little floating tulle scarf, are the usual accompaniment of morning costume. Bonnets have not increased in size, though some slight modifications in shape have taken place. Black lace is the general ground-work, and a large crimson or yellow rose, with a hanging garland on one side, the principal ornaments. The lace strings are usually fastened in front by a rose to match. The latest style is the Chapeau Bourbonnaise, which is turned up in front and behind so as to display the lining of bright-colored satin.

In a school of young ladies in France they studied physiology. The professor was explaining the theory, according to which the body is entirely renewed every six years: "Thus, Mademoiselle F." said he, addressing a jolly blonde with a wide awake face, "in six years you will be no longer Mademoiselle F." "I hope so," replied the unsophisticated, casting down her eyes.

A Letter From Daniel Webster to His Son.

A correspondent of the Boston Traveller gives extracts from a letter written by Daniel Webster to his son Edward, about the time the latter commenced his studies at Phillips' Exeter Academy, which school he himself at one time attended:

WASHINGTON, June 23, 1834.

MY DEAR SON:—Fletcher wrote me from Exeter the next day after your arrival, and informed me that you had been so fortunate as to be received at Col. Chadwick's, and was commencing your studies. You are at a most important period of life, my dear son, soon growing up to be a young man, and a boy no longer, and I feel great anxiety for your success. I beseech you to be attentive to all your duties, and to fulfill every obligation with cheerfulness and punctuality. Above all, remember your moral and religious concerns. Be constant at church and prayer and every appointment for worship. There can be no solid character and no true happiness which are not founded on a sense of religious duty. Avoid all evil company, and every temptation, and consider that you have now left your father's house and gone forth to improve your own character, and prepare your mind for the part you are to act in life. All that can be done for you by others will amount to nothing, unless you do much for yourself. Cherish all the good counsel which your dear mother used to give you, and let those of us who are yet alive have the pleasure of seeing you come forward as one who gives promise of virtue, usefulness and distinction. I fervently commend you to the blessings of our Heavenly father.

Your affectionate father,

DANL WEBSTER.

Sherman and the Mormons.

Lieutenant General Sherman is reported as characterizing the Mormons as a set of religious fanatics. He asserts that what they have accomplished in Utah, settling in the most wretched of deserts, on the shores of a salt lake, in the distant interior of a vast and almost trackless continent—and there, by the sheer force of will, industry, sagacity, temperance, admirable regulation and indomitable perseverence making a garden of the desert and fertile fields of the wilderness—could have been achieved by no other earthly motive power but religious fanaticism. Then, the fact that they were led to use this tremendous force in creating a region of fertility in the precise spot where the advancing course of Christianity and civilization would need it, and is now about to benefit by it, he cannot help regarding as a direct act of Divine Providence, bring His good out of man's evil doings. This being granted, it seems to him the best thing to do with the Mormons is to treat them like other people—not encouraging their institutions by admitting Utah as a State, but governing their Territory and ignoring their peculiarities. Persecutions always intensifies fanaticisms. Why should this be an exception? Let them alone; push on the Pacific Railroad; fill their Territory with active young Gentiles, and poligamy with die a natural death, while their civil theocracy will be overwhelmed and outvoted by the swarming incomers.

THE sheds built by the Pacific Railroad to protect their track from the deep snows of the Sierra Nevada mountains were crushed by the weight of snow that fell upon them last winter, and it was reported that some other method of protection would have to be devised. This plan, however, has not been abandoned. The company, it is stated, are now engaged in erecting sheds over the cuttings and exposed points. They are of heavy timber framework, with pointed gable roofs, and look as if they could withstand almost any pressure of snow. Nearly 40 miles of track will have to be thus covered and the quantity of timber required will be enormous. Not less than 28 sawmills, most of them worked by steam, are run night and day, employing nearly 2000 men, and yet they do not work up to the needs of the company. In a few weeks 28 mills will be running. It is estimated that it will require no less than 800,000 feet of lumber to construct a mile of sheds. So great is the demand that the forests on both sides of the track are being rapidly cut down.

A "RESPIRATORY-ADVERTISING Apparatus for precipitate inhumations," or a coffin to notify the world that you are buried alive, has appeared in Paris. It is a coffin with a communicating tube and mouthpiece, and a letter writer says if this ingenious invention comes into general use, the people who select the cemeteries as a place of resort, must not be surprised hereafter at hearing queer sounds from time to time proceeding from the earth around them. Imagine the surprised promenader exclaiming to a guardian; "What! you allow people to play the trombone here?" and the guardian replying, "That's no trombone. It's the old fellow of yesterday—down there—the seventh to the left—who demands change of base!"

LEON FAUCHER says, in a recent pamphlet entitled "Sovereign Power:" "The President of the United States, even bound as his hands are by the Senate, has at his disposal three times as much as the King of Prussia or the Emperor of Austria, five times much as the King of Italy, and twice as much as the Emperor of the French. The Emperor of Russia has more offices at his disposal, but the patronage of the President of the United States is far more valuable.

A MORMON missionary, charged with preaching immoral doctrines, has been arrested in Stettin, and will probably be sentenced to six months' imprisonment and then sent out of the country, with the warning that, in case he should return, much heavier punishment would be inflicted on him. The North German governments are firmly determined to put down the Mormon emissaries infesting that part of the country.

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired. Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Rooms of the Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth street.

"Snooks" says he voted to make the Mayor and Controller Robb and Steel and got Brush-ed for it.

Pittsburgh Female College.—The fall term of this leading educational institution commences September 2d.

Disorderly.—J. D. Zelly made information before the Mayor chorging William Evans with disorderly conduct. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Slight Fire.—A slight fire occurred in the kitchen of the St. James Hotel, (Mr. James Lanahan proprietor), Liberty street, near the Union Depot, Saturday morning, but was extinguished before any damage had been done.

Disorderly.—William Evans was charged with disorderly conduct on oath of John D. Galy, of the Point, before Mayor Blackmore, Saturday. Evans, who it appears was intoxicated, used abusive language and acted in a very disorderly manner. He was arrested and held for a hearing.

Assaulted an Officer.—Thomas Williams is charged before the Mayor on oath of officer Charles Weaver with assault and battery. The officer alleges that while he was in the discharge of his duty in attempting to make an arrest, Williams struck him and knocked him down. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Williams.

Assaulted.—Ellen Downy made information before Alderman Taylor, Saturday, charging Daniel and Ellen Flaherty with assault and battery. The parties reside in the old Fifth ward, and the deponent alleged that the defendants, after a little lip difficulty, attacked her jointly and beat her considerably. Warrants were issued Assault and Battery.—Mary McFarland made information before Justice Ammon on Saturday charging her husband, Patrick McFarland, with assault and battery. She alleges that Patrick came home drunk in the "we small hours," pulled her out of bed and kicked and otherwise abused her. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Patrick.

False Pretence.—Joseph Hoeflinger made information before the Mayor, Saturday, charging Boeker with obtaining twenty-five bushels of coal under false pretences. He alleges that the accused represented that the coal was for a Mr. McCaffrey, who would pay for it on delivery. The coal was delivered and Boeker, he says, got the money from McCaffrey, but has neglected or refused to pay it over. He was arrested and held for a hearing.

Special Announcement.—Mr. William Semple, the well known dry goods merchant, Nos. 180 and 182 Federal street, Allegheny, makes the special announcement that he has just opened a new assortment of desirable dress goods for fall wear. The stock is very large and choice, and will commend itself to his wholesale and retail patrons. New invoices are being daily received, and popular prices are offered in every department. Do not fail to read the announcement made on our fifth page.

Conductor Assaulted.

Michael Faas is charged before Alderman Donaldson with assault and battery on oath of John Monahan, a Conductor on the Citizens' Passenger Railway. It is alleged that about a week since Faas, considerably intoxicated at the time, got upon Monahan's car and made a good deal of disturbance. Officer Sarber put him off the car, and after some blustering the man disappeared. Friday evening he was at the Railway stables, in Lawrenceville, when Monahan's car came up, and called the conductor to one side. Faas, it is said, addressed some insulting words to Monahan, and then knocked him down three or four times. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Receiving the Returns.

The returns from the various wards were reported at the Republican Headquarters, City Hall, on Saturday night. There were present fully two thousand persons, and as the figures commenced to develop themselves in favor of one and then the other candidate, the partizans cheered lustily. Towards ten o'clock the result was announced by Messrs. Slagle and Lambie, and three times three thundering cheers went up for Brush, McGowan and Cochrane, the nominees, and for Grant and Colfax. A large number of the party then adjourned to the office of W. C. Moreland, Esq., Fifth street, where Mr. Brush was awaiting the result, and serenaded that gentleman. After the usual hand shaking, brief speeches were made by Messes. Slagle and Moreland, after which the meeting adjourned.

A Young Hopeful.

Saturday afternoon a boy about sixteen years of age, named John Cutler, was arrested in South Pittsburgh by officer Stemler, on a charge of larceny. It appears that he was passing along Third street in that borough, and when in front of Mr. Joseph Hurley's grocery store he observed that gentleman come out of the store, cross the street and enter a butcher shop on the opposite side. Observing that there was no one in the store, he deliberately walked in, opened the cash drawer and appropriated the contents, amounting in all to about fifteen dollars, and made his escape. Mr. H. came out of the butcher shop just in time to see him leave the store, and on entering his establishment discovered that he had been robbed. He immediately started in pursuit of the young rascal, but could not overtake him. Officer Stemler was then put upon his track, and sometime in the afternoon succeeded in arresting him in a lumber yard in the rear of Justice Barker's office.

It appears that while being pursued by Hurley the boy had passed through the yard and hid the money, and had returned to recover it, when the officer nabbed him. As soon as the officer got hold of him he admitted his guilt and conducted him to where the money was secreted. He was then taken to the office of Justice Barker, where an information for larceny was made against him.

He is a bright intelligent boy and tells a very plausable story, which, if true, would be at least an excuse for his crime. He says he came from Washington city at the instance of a man calling himself Joe Brown, and was on his way to Cincinnati. Brown, he alleges, had employed six or seven boys about his age in Washington city to pilfer, paying them a weekly salary, and he receiving the stolen goods and money. About a week since Brown had made arrangement with the boys to take them to Cincinnati, where he promised to increase their wages. When the time for departure arrived the boys all "backed out" except him, and he started in company with his employer. When they arrived at Altoona, having managed to steal their way that far on the train they were put off by the conductor, and had made arrangements to get on the next train. Brown succeeded in getting on, but the train had got under too much headway for him (Cutler), and he was left behind. He succeeded in getting aboard the next train, however, and arrived in the city about nine o'clock Saturday morning, and in two hours afterward committed the robbery for which he was arrested. If the statement be correct, the authorities of Cincinnati should be on the lookout for Brown, as he has, doubtless, proceeded to that city alone, and will, perhaps, go into business there.

The boy, after a partial hearing, was committed for ten days, when he will have a further hearing.

POLITICAL.

How the Primary Elections Passed off—Municipal Nominations—Jared M. Brush For Mayor—Robert J. McGowan for Controller—A. J. Cochran for Treasurer.

The primary elections of the Union Republican party of consolidated Pittsburgh proceeded on Saturday afternoon in a spirited though peaceful and orderly manner, and as a result we have put forward a ticket embracing the names of gentlemen who will rally to their support every honest and consistent member of the party. The subjoined returns will show what a deep interest was taken in the nominations, which are equivalent to election, in all of the wards, the vote out being unusually large. It was a subject of general remark throughout the City that a much better class than generally participate at primary elections were in attendance at the polls and worked diligently to secure the nomination of their respective favorites. The universal fairness and honor which marked the elections, and the general satisfaction expressed over the result, spoke volumes in favor of the Crawford county system of nominating, over the corrupt delegate plan discarded. The people were out in their might, and the contest was a fair, square, good humored earnest fight, but the very moment the result was announced all fell into the lines, and with vociferous cheers, and other manifestations of approval, gave the pledge that there will be no bolting from the ticket.

For Mayor, Jared M. Brush was nominated, leading Mr. Jeremy 629 votes. Perhaps the citizens never before had such acceptable material before them from which to make a Mayor as in these three gentlemen, and no mistake would have been made to have selected either. Mr. Brush is in every respect worthy the honor conferred upon him. A man of solid sense, practical and determined, he will make most an excellent Chief Magistrate to preside over our city. He belongs to the working classes, and although made comfortably wealthy out of hard labor and toil, his interests will always continue to be identified with the laboring element of society. He will find no more ardent supporters than his two competitors for the office, Messrs. Jeremy and Robb. The comparatively small vote which the latter gentleman received is largely attributable to the fact that he entered the field at the eleventh hour, having been called out just three days previous to Saturday. Mr. Jeremy made a good fight, and his manly course in submitting without a murmur to the voice of the people commends him to every member of the party.

For Controller, Robert J. McGowan, of the Fifth ward, was nominated, leading Mr. Steel 272 votes. While thousands will regret the circumstance which deprives the city of the services of the present Controller, whose efficiency and ability are unquestionable, still the nomination affords very general satisfaction. Mr. McGowan is a man of decided worth and integrity and will discharge the duties of the position with marked care and ability. He is thoroughly conversant with the affairs of the city, having served many years in the City Councils. He has a host of friends and will add vastly to the strength of the ticket. He is taken fresh from the workshop to serve the people in a responsible position for which he has undoubted qualifications.

The remaining candidate, A. J. Cochran, of the old Ninth ward, for City Treasurer, received a handsome majority over his competitors, all of whom were excellent men. Mr. Allinder developed considerable strength which proves how highly his past services in the Treasurer's office, have been appreciated. The nominee is an admirable and wise selection. He is very popular with all classes of society, and when elected will be found more than equal to the responsibilities of the position. He, too, is a practical workingman, and has never figured much in politics. Messrs. Tomlinson and Little, whose names were also before the people for the Treasurship, made no special effort to secure the nomination, permitting the contest to rest between Messrs. Cochran and Allinder.

Upon the whole the ticket is a good and strong one, and will be elected by an old fashioned majority in October. Here are the returns:

GENERAL SATISPACTION.

The nominations afford the liveliest satisfaction, and we have heard no breath of complaint. The defeated candidates will labor for the triumph of the ticket, and with party lines solid and undivided the Republican party of Pittsburgh will march to certain victory in October next.

Republican Meeting in East Deer—Pole Raising.

The Republicans of East Deer township met on Thursday evening, August 13th, and effected the permanent organization of a Grant and Colfax club by electing the following officers:

President—J. B. McKinney.
Vice Presidents—Hugh Wood and John Kiefer.
Secretary—Leander Wise.
Treasurer—Henry Hudepohls.

A list was opened and thirty-two names enrolled as members of the club, and after a brief but telling speech from Mr. Hugh Wood, it was resolved to adjourn to meet on Friday evening at five o'clock for the purpose of raising a Liberty pole in honor of Grant and Colfax, and also to hold a mass meeting in the evening at Hite's station, after which the meeting adjourned. Punctual at the hour of five on Friday evening that which constitutes the backbone of American liberty—the Republican party—began to assemble and after some unavoidable delays the great pole went majestically up toward the "vaulted blue," and it was a noticeable fact that a doubtful voter was at each guy rope, Democrat enough to keep from shouting but Republican enough it seems to help the work along, and we believe it will ultimately be so with them at the polls. After the pole was made secure, the glorious old stripes and stars was run up amidst soul-stirring strains of martial music, and when they reached their destination three rousing cheers for Grant and Colfax rent the air and drove the arrows of conviction deep into every yearning Democratic bosom present. The crowd then took a recess until the arrival of the evening train, which was to bring up the orators from the city, at which time "Sorghum Hollow" and vicinity began to send forth "fair women and brave men." The meeting was organized by calling on the officers of the club to preside. Mr. McCormick was called upon the stand to address the audience. He, though not a great orator, proved himself to be a man of deep thought and sound judgment, and a logical reasoner. His elucidation of the principles of the Republican party, we think, cannot well be gainsayed. After he retired Col. Bayne was introduced, and proceeded to address the meeting, and he did it, too, in such a style that I verily think that the "unterrified" felt for once at least that a thunderbolt was hurled amongst them. He spoke in an able, eloquent and gentlemanly manner; his reasoning was full of logic; he appealed to reason and not to passion; he believed a political speech consisted not in slandering and vituperating men of the opposite party, but in stating plain, unvarnished facts, pointing out the truth of one doctrine and the fallacies of the other. The Colonel is a young man, but he is a man who will make his mark some day if life and health be spared him. "May his shadow never grow less." He ceased speaking and a vote of thanks was given with a right good will to the worthy speakers for the important service rendered by them on them on the occasion. After three rousing cheers for Grant and Colfax the meeting adjourned. H.

Meeting at Mt. Washington.

A large and enthusiastic Republican mass meeting of the citizens of Mt. Washington was held on Saturday evening, at the school house of the borough.

The meeting was called to order by the President of the Grant Club, Mr. David Furguson, who introduced W. J. McCune, Esq. This gentleman compared the war record of the two parties, and held that as during the war, the Republicans were charged with it, they now were entitled to all the credit. He was listened to with close attention for about forty minutes, during which time he dissected modern Democracy pretty thoroughly.

H.C. Mackrell, Esq., was next introduced, and said that the last time he was on the hill was in 1863. Then we were preparing to protect ourselves from the same enemy who now threatenes us.

In alluding to the convention of pure patriots that lately met at New York—amongst them the sainted Vallandigham and holy Forrest—and also to their generous proposal to pay off the debt without money and without price, he touched lightly on the opposition candidate for Congress, Mr. Burtt's position he very happily illustrated by a little story, which was received with rousing cheers.

J. W. Murray, Esq., then followed for a few minutes, limiting himself entirely to the necessity of organization. Meetings and enthusiasm are very well and great helps, but the quiet canvassing is what shows on election day, and this we can have only by thorough organization.

J. S. Robb, Esq., then made a hasty review of the results of the war and the issues before the nation, and after showing the great consequences at stake, urged active and energetic organization to save what was so dear to loyal Americans.

Nearly one-half of the voters then present came forward and signed the roll of the Grant and Colfax Club, after which the meeting adjourned.

Fourth Ward, Allegheny.

A meeting was held Saturday evening at Bismarck Hall of the Union Republicans of the Fourth ward, Allegheny City, for the purpose of forming a Grant Club to co-operate with the Grant clubs heretofore formed throughout the county during the present campaign. The meeting was organized temporarily by calling John A. Myler to the Chair and by the appointment of Captain S. E. B. Dalzell as temporary Secretary. On motion a Committee was appointed on permanent organization consisting of Wm. Rodgers, Esq., W. S. Purviance and Captain McGraw. After consultation the Committee reported the following as permanent officers and the report was unanimously adopted:

President—John McGraw.
Vice Presidents—Louis Moul, Alexander Young, Geo. W. Dawson, H. W. Behrhorst.
Secretaries—Capt. J. E. B. Dalzell, Jas. W. Murray.
Treasurer—Joshua Patterson.

On motion of the Chair President McGraw made an appropriate speech and the Club was declared organized for the campaign. The Fourth ward boys mean business as was attested by the spirit and enthusiasm of all present with the formation of the Club. After short addresses from several of the gentlemen present the Club adjourned to meet at the call of the President. In the meantime the organization will be perfected by the appointment of finance and block Committees, and it is the intention of the Club to procure a suitable hall where its future meetings will be held.

Reception of Carl Schurz.

A meeting of the Committee of Arrangements for the reception of Hon. Carl Schurz was held on Friday evening last, at the hall of the German Singing Societies, on Smithfield street.

The chairman, Mr. Jos. Abel, submitted the following programme, which was adopted:

1. Reception of Hon. Carl Schurz at the Railroad Depot by a Committee of Seven to escort him to the hotel.
2. From the Hotel to City Hall.
3. After the meeting return to the Hotel torchlight procession and serenade.

The following Committees were appointed:

Reception Committee—Messrs. Russell Errett, Wm. Neeb, Col. Geo. Gerst, Jos. Abel, A. Krebs, H. T. Mueller, H. Gerwig.
Printing—Messrs. W. Neeb, Jos. Abel, A. Krebs.
Torchlight Procession—Dr. Hartmeyer, C. Gang, Fr. Beilstein, J. Nusser, C. Conrad, M. Neckerman, C. C. Smith, John Heath, Wm. B. Cook.
Finance—John Heath, Wm. B. Cook, J. F. Stark,

The Committee on Printing was authorized to invite the German Turners and Singing Societies to join the festivities of the evening.

Dr. Hartmeyer will act as Marshal of the procession.

Cutting Affray in Allegheny.

A serious cutting affray occurred at the corner of Main and Chestnut streets, Allegheny, Saturday night, between John Cash and John Koch, which in all probability will prove fatal to the former. It appears that the parties met in Fulz's saloon on Ohio street, and Cash, who had been drinking, endeavored to incite a quarrel. Koch was not disposed to quarrel and left the house. Cash followed him out and when on the street struck him several times. Koch made no resistance further than to get out of the way of his assailant after which he started down Chestnut street. Cash followed him, and at the corner named again attacked him, whereupon Koch it is alleged drew a knife and cut him inflicting a serious wound under the right arm, serving one of the main arteries. Cash fell as soon as he received the cut and his companions run away and left him. Kosh also left, and Cash was found at about eleven o'clock, half an hour after the affray occurred, by one of the policemen, who called another and had him removed to the office of Dr. Alcorn. The injured man was insensible when found by the officer from the loss of blood. The Doctor dressed his wound, and and succeeded in stopping the flow of blood for the time. His recovery is doubtful.

NEW WELL.—The Phoenix Well No. 1, on the Phoenix Oil Company's tract, near the National Wells, commenced pumping Friday at 9 o'clock, and at 4 o'clock p. m. was producing at the rate of from 80 to 200 barrels per day. Its owners are A. H. Bronson, D. V. Derrickson, C. C. Johnson and E. T. Anderson, all of Meadville.

M'KINNEY WELL.—This well, which is on the Benedict estate, Enterprise, we understand was flowing Friday at the rate of 50 barrels per day, being the effect of a torpedo exploded in it on Thursday night. There is another well in the immediate vicinity, which is nearly ready for testing.

German Sænger Festival.

Our German citizens are making ample preparations for the great Convention of singers of this State, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia, to take place August 31 and during the first three days of September. The festivities will comprise a grand concert of all the different societies, numbering about twenty-three, with an elaborate orchestra accompaniment, a special concert contest by the leading societies, a torchlight procession, a picnic and a ball.

After due consideration of the suitableness of the different halls and localities that could be used on the occasion it was decided to select Turner Hall, on Sixth street, as headquarters and decorate it in the best manner possible After the arrival of the foreign societies a torchlight procession is to be formed to march to the Keystone Skating Rink, Allegheny City, headed by his Excellency Governor Geary and other distinguished guests, where speeches of welcome will be delivered, and the proceedings diversified by vocal and instrumental music. The rink will be gorgeously decorated for the occasion.

On Tuesday, September 1st, a grand concert will be given by the combined societies, assisted by some of our prominent vocal and instrumental artists. The selection of the pieces of music has been carefully compiled to make a harmonious ensemble, and have been on rehearsal for some time past. The orchestra has been selected from among our best musicians here, and is under the leadership of Mr. Geo. Toerge, assisted by his talented brothers and others. The third day will be devoted to the business part of the societies, and in the evening a concert is arranged to take place in Turner Hall, on Sixth street, by the different societies. Great pains have been taken by the separate societies to make this part of the programme as attractive as possible and to give satisfaction. For the fourth day a pic-nic has been arranged to take place in Iron City Park, to which all the societies will march in procession. A strong effort has been made by the leaders of the whole enterprise to select a more picturesque place for the pic-nic, one showing the surroundings of Pittsburgh to a better advantage, but the distances are too great and the difficulties insurmountable. The festivities will conclude with a ball in the Turner Hall, where ample preparations will be made in the large and splendidly decorated hall and on the ground floor to accommodate all who wish to gratify their taste for waltzing. Take it all in all, it is a great undertaking, considering that the management generally rests with a few responsible and energetic men, but we are glad to hear that some of our most distinguished German citizens have put their shoulders to the wheel and are bound to succeed. If the festival is not equal to the performances of the Arion and Luderkranz of New York, it will certainly not be behind anything ever undertaken in this city.

The Prize-Ring—Disgraceful Scene in the Eleventh Ward.

Notwithstanding the fact that City Councils have decided that the police force was sufficiently large, and what there is of it is said to be well regulated and efficient, an accursed incident transpired within the limits of the city which would indicate either a lack of vigilance on the part of the police, or that their number was insufficient for the amount of duty to be performed.

The disgraceful affair took place at the corner of Cliff and Green streets, in the Eleventh ward, Saturday evening, in the way of a prize fight, in which Tom Burk and Billy McCluskey were the principals, and terminating in a general row, in which young Richardson and others acted in a very disgraceful manner.

About eleven o'clock P. M. the parties and their friends repaired to the place named to fight for twenty-five dollars a side. A ring was formed and the bruisers entered, with their seconds, and the fight commenced. M'Cluskey proved too much for Burke, who was knocked "out of time" about the fourth round. The fight alone was bad enough, but the crowd of blackguards and cut throats, which had assembled to witness the disgraceful scene, were not content, but made it still more disgraceful by attacking and beating the winning man into a perfect jelly. No sooner was the fight decided by the referee, than some one struck M'Cluskey with a "billy" and knocked him down, after which the greater portion of the crowd kicked and beat him in a most shameful manner. It is alleged that Richardson used the "billy," but it is hard to tell who did it as the crowd was terribly excited. The affair lasted for fully an hour, and the confusion, cursing and moving of the crowd of cut-throats and bruisers could be heard for over a square. It appears, however, there were no police in that neighboorhood. Not a blue coat could be found. No arrests have been made so far as we have been able to learn. It is evident from the above that the present force is insufficient to preserve order in the City at all times; whether the insufficiency is in the number or the material we are unable to say, and consequently will leave the matter with the City authorities.

The Hydraulic Cow Milker.

This wonderful machine, combining simplicity, strength and eminent utility, is fast earning for itself a national reputation, as well as golden opinions from all sorts of people. It is not too much to say that no other single invention ever called forth so many high encomiums from the press, or ever received such flattering endorsements from those for whom it is especially designed. It is just what every farmer and dairyman has been looking for, and now that it is within reach of all, it is not to be wondered at that the Hydraulic Cow Milker has created a grand field of enterprise for go-ahead men who are desirous of realizing a lucrative business on a moderate capital. The branch office with Messrs. Phelps, Park & Co., No. 10 St. Clair street, where this remarkable machine is on exhibition, is thronged daily with parties desirous of becoming interested in its sale; and no other field to-day presents such a golden opportunity to coin money as this.—Commercial.

Saratoga Hotel—The Evening Dispiay.

Dancing is enjoyed in the evening in the parlors of the different hotels. The most interesting, as well as amusing sights or study, are the toilettes and particular carriage or motion of the leading belles. If the grandmothers could be resurrected and stood in line with the daughters and mothers, what an interesting spectacle they would present. The old adage that "history but repeats itself," would be verified. By reference to old pictures and histories it will be found that a fashion or form of toilette, ultra or extravagant substantially appears at least every fifty years. The very extreme of the present Paris toilette prevails at Saratoga to-day, or rather an imitation which might be called a burlesque or extravaganza of an antique style. Not a bell or swell hoop is to be found where once an army of them was in motion. The chignon is worn on top of the head, with two switches inserted in the hair about thirty degrees below the key of the arch on each side of the center, which form pendants like the horns of a goat, or to be more precise, like those of a chamois. The dress has a medium waist adapted to a hoop somewhat of the shape of a barrel, large at the center and small at each end, with a backward sweil to assist in forming the train. A large bustle, or "pannier," is worn at the top of the hoop, upon which is gathered up five or six yards of material in a kind of bundle. This is called the "blanchisscuse," or washer-woman's style, but really resembles the humps of a camel's back. Across the lower hips, below this "pannier," a band extends. It will thus be seen that we have the most extraordinary toilet known in the realms of fashion for the last two hundred years! It may be remembered as a historic fact that a change of fashion changes the whole tone of a person's manner. The stately, patronizing airs, assumed by our belles a short time, when dressed in the ample dowager skirts then in vogue, would hardly be becoming the wearer of the fashionable garb of the day. The fitness of things alone would prevent this. As a logical sequence of this, all our belles play the petite with a furore. When walking or standing, instead of the stately step or the statuesque, they assume what is called the "Grecian bend," or the air of diffidence and inquiry, with all the adjuncts. The Grecian bend is performed by pulling the lower hips up to a point even with the lower ribs, throwing the pit of the stomach back or in and the shoulders forward, the hands are held in front, pedant from the wrist, and intended to represent a spray, the gait is of a canter or tilter motion. It will be seen from the description of the dress that it is peculiarly adapted to effectually allow of a full performance of the "Grecian bend," and when the whole affair is carried out in the dance by a gay and luxuriant youth, with his hair parted in the middle, placing his right arm under the left of the lady, with digitals extended, as in a spasm, resting between shoulder blade, while with the thumb and second finger he holds her wrist, thus leaving her hand to hang lifelessly pendant, we have an exhibition of snobbishness and cockneyism which must put all sensible Americans to blush.—Cor. N. Y. Tribune.

Copperhead Ruffianism.

The brutish, devilish spirit which possesses the so called Democracy was fully manifested on the occasion of the passage of General Grant through Carlinville, the other evening. That party, under the auspices of that prince of low fellows, Bill O'Brien, had been holding a political meeting in town during the day, and filled with bad whisky, when they heard that General Grant was upon the train, they started for the depot, several hundred strong, and taking possession of the platform, and surrounding the General's car, they set upon him with the most unearthly yells and screetchings, insulting him and his family in the most dastardly and shameful manner. The fellow O'Brien, whose manners are as filthy as he is himself personally, was loudest and foremost in edging on the drunken mob. General Grant had raised the window of the car for the purpose of shaking hands with some friends whom he recognized, when one of the dirty hounds, more impudent than the rest, rushed to the window and shouted "Hurrah for Seymour and Blair," violently striking General Grant in the face with his hat. Mr. McConnell, who was conversing with the General at the time, resented the indignity by giving the fellow a blow on the side of the smeller, which sent a sprawling, and Lieut. McKee and others kicked him off the platform. This, however, only more incensed the Copperhead mob, and, though it was intended by the decent citizens of the place to extend to the General who had successfully led our armies through the war some indication of their personal, not to say political, appreciation of his services, it was found utterly impossible to do so, and the train passed on.—Springfield Rep, 10th.

The President and Reconstruction.

A Washington correspondent of the New York Times says:

The letter of instructions from Secretary Schofield to Gen. Buchanan, made public yesterday, the essential points of which were anticipated in these dispatches, has had a decided pacific effect in Republican circles here, and has occasioned corresponding misgivings among the Democracy. It is intended to be applicable to all of the military commanders in the recently admitted States, and settles at once and for all time the doubt regarding the course of the administration in recognizing the Governments of these States. In fact, by this act, the President has virtually given the control of these States into the hands of Secretary Schofield, who is a pronounced supporter of the Congressional reconstruction policy and of Grant and Colfax. The letter was written by Secretary Schofield, approved by the President and forwarded through army headquarters without Cabinet consultation on it. The few Congressmen who remain here, with many prominent Radicals, agree that one of the most important results of the promulgation of this letter will be that Congress will not reassemble in September. The Democratic friends of the Administration are very earnest in their denunciations of the letter, and publicly pronounce it a surrender to the Radicals.

TEXAS "BROTHERHOOD IN CHRIST."—Flake's Galveston Bulletin prints the following letter of excommunication, addressed to an unhappy Radical:

BETTHE , ANDERSON CO., Texas, Mar. 2, 1868.

BROTHER KING: On last Saturday a charge was preferred against you in our Church, for inconsistency as a follower of Christ. The charge is here below copied:

"I charge Brother W. H. King, a regular member of our Church, and our former Clerk, with having openly avowed himself as a Black Republican and Radical, by accepting of the appointment as County Clerk under the military authority.

H M. MORRIS.

The Church wants you to be in attendance next meeting, and bring your Church letter. The Church will not fellowship a Radical. I am one of the Committee to notify you. Your brother in Christ,

H. CLAY.

King did not appear as ordered by his "brother in Christ" (?); and on the second Saturday in June last he was excluded from this holy band of brothers in the Lord. They even went so far as to send to his (King's) wife for his church letters when he refused to surrender them on the order of the church.

A NEW ENGLAND paper tells this story: "There is a man in Vermont who cannot speak to his father. Previous to his birth some difficulty arose between his mother and father, and for a considerable time she refused to speak with him. The difficulty was subsequently healed, the child was born, and in due time began to talk, but when sitting with his father was invariably silent. It continued so until the child was five years old, when the father, having exhausted his powers of persuasion, threatened it with punishment for its stubbornness. When the punishment was inflicted, it elicited nothing but sighs and groans, which told but too plainly that the little sufferer could not speak, though he vainly endeavored to do so. All who were present united in the opinion that it was impossible for the child to speak to its father. Time proved this opinion to be correct. At a mature age his efforts to converse with his parent could only produce the most bitter sighs and groans."

AMONG the gifts to a newly married pair at a town in New Jersey, the other evening, was a broom sent to the lady, accompanied with the following sentiment:

In storms the other end."
